Itinerary

11 Day Philippines Island Hopping Tour W/Flights

IMPORTANT NOTE: Any extra nights, optional tours or other amendments, will not be visible on this itinerary.

DAY 1: Depart Australia ~ Arrive Cebu, Philippines

This morning you will depart Australia from either Sydney, Melbourne or Brisbane for your flight to the Philippines! Transiting through Manila, you will arrive in Cebu in the evening. Upon arrival at the airport you will be met by a tour representative and transferred to your hotel for the night
MEALS: None

OVERNIGHT: Maayo Hotel (3*) or Radission Blu (4*), Cebu

DAY 2: Cebu City Tour

Today you will explore and discover the roots of the country. This full day private guided sightseeing tour can include several highlights like the Mactan Shrine, Carbon Market, Fort San Pedro, Magellan's Cross, Basilica Minore del Santo Niño and The Taoist Temple which are all historic destinations of significance. But we are more than happy to customize this day-tour for you, depending on your interests (and amount of traffic) as this is your individualized private tour. A visit to the "Lechon Capital" of the Philippines will not be complete without trying the famous Lechon Cebu, a whole roasted suckling pig with crispy skin. At dinner, you may want to try this mouthwatering dish in one of the best Lechon places in the city. The "puso" or sometimes called "hanging rice" is said to be the best partner to this dish.
MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch

OVERNIGHT: Maayo Hotel (3*) or Radission Blu (4*), Cebu

DAY 3: Cebu ~ Bohol

You will travel via fastcraft ferry and upon arrival in Tagbilaran will be transferred to your resort in Loboc, Bohol. Your resort boasts of having a peaceful and calming ambience. Your afternoon is free. Your accommodation is surrounded by a five hectare nature track, ideal for trekking and bird watching. Or you can engage in optional activities, including kayaking and stand up paddleboarding, explore the nearby Panglao Island - a long stretch of powdery white sand, pristine waters awaits you to enjoy.

OPTIONAL: : Coastal Scenic Island Tour $200 per person

DAY 8: Siquijor Free Day

Today you have the option to go on a private land tour of Siquijor.
OPTIONAL TOUR: On this full day excursion, you will be driven around the island to experience its many wonderful highlights, including the Old Balete Tree, a 4 century year old Banyan Tree. Besides providing water to the nearby village, locals believe that this tree is inhabited by spirits. Next is St. Isidore Church and Convent, built in 1884 in Lazi, it is the biggest and among the oldest convents in Asia and recognized as a National Historical Landmark. Cambugahay Waterfalls, a three level waterfall with refreshing water perfect for swimming is another highlight. Be sure to wear your swimsuit as a dip in these falls is a must! You will also stop by the Shell Museum - an exhibit of many sea shells found in Siquijor, as well as St. Francis of Assisi Church and Bell Tower and the beautiful San Juan de Capilay Lake. One of the most interesting highlights is the visit to the Bolo-bolo Healer. A healing ritual involves using a clear glass of water, black stone and pipe. Using the pipe, the healer blows into the glass of water, moving it across the affected area of the patient's body. A highly enjoyable day and wonderful introduction to the magical island of Siquijor!
